

MARTHA STEWART Living

THANKSGIVING
101
PAGE 114

Martha Stewart Living
November 2013

36

OUR FINDS Editors' Picks

Swept Away
This 24-inch black straw fireplace broom was hand-rolled by students in the crafts program at Berea College, in Kentucky. $22, bereacollegecrafts.com.

Log In
Keep firewood hearthside in this hand-split Finnish pine basket (it also totes logs). $140, tiinathestore.com.

Pop Star
Skip the microwave and shake this popcorn pan over the fire for a fresh-popped snack. Makes up to 12 cups. $35, shopterrain.com.

Get Stoked
With the sleek design of the $154, this Connecticut-made polished-brass-and-bronze poker doubles as a blower, thanks to its hollow core. $154, blopoke.com.

Hang Tough
Crafted by Amish artisans in Ohio, this steel tool set comprises a soot scraper, an ash shovel, a stand, and a poker. $100, lehmans.com.

Dust Up
Keep your fireplace free of ashes with this bright red dustpan. $15, andbarrel.com.

HOME WHERE THE HEARTH IS
These hand tools and accessories will keep your hearth roaring and your fireplace looking chic.
PHOTOGRAPHED BY RYAN GARDNER

All Screened
This 39-by-30-inch handmade iron fireplace screen has a midcentury feel and an antiqued-brass finish. $199, crateandbarrel.com.

Stand and Deliver
These graphic andirons have a hammered-iron finish. $210, plowandhearth.com.

Carry On
Transport logs from the woodpile to the fireplace with this durable canvas tote. It has strong deerskin straps and folds up for easy storage. $98, kaufmann-mercantile.com.

Lehman's